On or Around Campus

Student Nighttime Auxiliary Patrol (SNAP)

SNAP is a free, nightly, campus door-to-door, safety and transportation service co-sponsored by Student Traffic Court, Student Government, and the University of Florida Police Department. All SNAP employees are University of Florida students who have passed a stringent background check. Employees are equipped with a police radio and picture ID, and their communications are monitored by the University of Florida Police Department. SNAP is available when classes are in session during the fall and spring semesters from 6:30 p.m. until 3:00 a.m. nightly. During the summer SNAP operates from 8:30 p.m. until 3:00 a.m. nightly. University police officers are available to provide escorts after SNAP's regular hours by calling (352) 392-1111. FOR A FREE NIGHTTIME CAMPUS ESCORT - CALL (352) 392-SNAP.

Gainesville Regional Transit System

The Gainesville Regional Transit System (RTS) is a public commuter bus service that provides transportation to locations throughout Gainesville, the University of Florida, and portions of Alachua County.
