Spring Break is here! There are many important safety considerations for students to keep in mind during their spring break from classes. In an effort to assist students with safety questions, the UFPD is hosting the “29th Annual UFPD Spring Break Safety Fair” Thursday, March 1, 2012 from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on the J. Wayne Reitz Union North Lawn. The Spring Break Safety Fair is a yearly informational event presented by the University of Florida Police Department for the purpose of providing essential personal and property safety information to vacationing UF students. The fair consistently receives the annual support of businesses and public safety organizations from around the community and state.

The “29th Annual UFPD Spring Break Safety Fair” will include safety information by the UFPD Community Services Division (UFPD/CSD) including numerous special displays and activities, the UFPD Office of Victim Services, Alachua County Victim Services and Rape Crisis Center, GatorWell, and UF Student Legal Services. The UFPD/CSD will also provide free bicycle theft prevention registrations.

Don’t miss the UFPD Spring Break Safety Fair!!
