SUBJECT: Stabbing
CR# 12-1519
DATE OF INCIDENT: Thursday, August 2, 2012
DATE OF RELEASE: Thursday, August 2, 2012
NARRATIVE:

The University of Florida Police Department is investigating a stabbing that occurred at Buckman Drive and University Avenue.

While the investigation is ongoing, details show that this is an isolated incident which had begun as a verbal argument between the suspects and victims shortly after leaving a midtown bar, and escalated to a stabbing.

The vehicle observed leaving the scene and one suspect has been detained, two more suspects remain at large. One at large suspect is described as male of Middle Eastern descent, wearing a light colored button up shirt, and khaki pants. The second male suspect also described as of Middle Eastern descent, was wearing a light colored button up shirt and jeans.

The two victims were transported to Shands Hospital with non-life threatening wounds.
