SUBJECT: Public Information Bulletin
CR# 10-1063
DATE OF INCIDENT: May 27, 2010
DATE OF RELEASE: June 17, 2010
NARRATIVE:

An unidentified subject using the known aliases of “Trent Brungard” and “Trenton Brungard” is contacting college women through Facebook. The subject is falsely representing himself as a talent agent for United Talent Agency in California. United Talent Agency confirmed neither “Trent Brungard” nor “Trenton Brugnard” was ever employed at the agency. The subject is requesting four photos of women for entry into a Maxim magazine college issue and is offering $8,500.00 to $11,000.00.

Initially, the subject requests personal contact information and a physical description. He then sends four photos that the women are asked to replicate in both pose and attire for entry into the contest. Once the subject receives the four photos from the women, he extorts the women for additional photos of their breasts. He threatens to post the four photos the women already provided, as well as their personal information, on college gossip websites. The subject will continue to cyberstalk the women until he receives the photos he requested.

If you have information about this subject or the subject in the photo, or if you believe you were a victim of this subject’s scheme, please contact Detective Maculan at (352) 392-4705.

Facebook profile photo for “Trent Brungard”

Students are reminded to carefully verify anyone making contact with them regarding modeling or acting opportunities. Students are further reminded to avoid contact with unknown individuals through social networking sites. If further concern exists, contact local law enforcement.
For questions regarding information contained in this release, please contact Captain Jeff Holcomb at 352-273-3301, or after hours at 392-1111 or from your cell phone at (# UFPD (#8373)). He can also be reached via e-mail at jholcomb@ufl.edu. This release is also available on the UFPD webpage at http://www.police.ufl.edu/.

Released by: Captain Jeff Holcomb
Reviewed by: Captain Darren Baxley
Number: 10-11