On February 07, 2011, Mr. Charles R. Lepley entered the Office of the President at Tigert Hall and spoke with the president’s Executive Secretary. Mr. Lepley stated that he wanted to speak with researchers completing work on the impending extinction of the human race over the course of the next 100 to 200 years. Mr. Lepley stated that he preferred to be called “Hugh” and later stated that his given name was “Charles Richard Campbell”. In fact his given last name is “Lepley”. Mr. Lepley was not hostile or aggressive; however, his actions and mannerisms were disturbing at the time. Mr. Lepley left the office without incident.
